

Shaare Torah
List of Approved Caterers
(As of December 2011)

All food served at Shaare Torah is subject to the congregation's Kashrut Policy, and must be approved by the Rabbi. These policies include how food is prepared, how it is delivered before Shabbat, and how it is heated/served on Shabbat. Please review them carefully in preparation for your event.

Food prepared at home may NOT be served at synagogue functions, whether inside our outside of our facilities.

The following caterers are under the supervision of the "Capitol-K" of the Washington Rabbinical Council, and are pre-approved to provide food for functions at Shaare Torah (subject to all other aspects of our kashrut policy):

The following caterers are under supervision of the Metro-K authority. Most do kosher and non-kosher catering. Clients who wish to serve their food at Shaare Torah are responsible for specifying with these caterers that they must prepare their food in a kosher commissary under Metro-K's rabbinical supervisions. There are NO exceptions to this policy. Therefore, the rabbi must be consulted before using these caterers:
